(COURT) INSTRUCTIONS FOR ISSUANCE OF RESTRICTED DRIVER'S LICENSE			(COURT)

- 1. This form must be delivered to Driver's License Examining Station of your choice within thirty (30) days of this Court Order and present with (2) copies of the Order to the Driver's License Examiner along with proof of liability insurance. Acceptable proof of insurance may be a liability insurance policy or written verification from an insurance company or agency certifying that you are covered with insurance (applications for insurance cannot be accepted). After presenting the Court Order, an acceptable proof of insurance, and upon passing the required driver's license examination, consisting of eye, written, and road test, a temporary driving permit will be issued. One (1) copy of the Court Order will be returned to you to
- 2. An SR-22 form must be attached to this restricted driver's license from when it is delivered to Driver's License Examining Station if convicted of DWI. This form verifies your insurance coverage to the Department of Safety. In order for your restricted driver's license to be mailed to you, the SR-22 form must be received in Nashville within 45 days from the date of your driver's license test.
 - The SR-22 requirement applies to DWI's only, not to those suspended on Implied Consent.

keep with your temporary driving permit until you receive your restricted driver's license.

- 3. Upon successfully passing the examination and paying the required fees to the Examiner (the fees of sixty-seven (67) dollars must be paid in cash only), the Examiner will issue a temporary restricted license valid not to exceed sixty (60) days. As soon as the SR-22, if required, is received in Nashville, the Department of Safety will mail to you a restricted license valid for the period of the suspension or revocation imposed by law.
- 4. You must be covered by liability insurance at all times to drive legally on a restricted license.

We are providing you with this information to expedite the issuance of your license.
